

PROGRESSIVE PARTY

TO CONTINUE FIGHT

Conference at Indianapolis Decides Not to Put Out Separate Ticket but to Endeavor to Keep Organization Together for Future.

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—Plans for the reorganization and perpetuation of the Progressive party as a national political organization were adopted here tonight at conference of the Bull Moose representatives. The conference after a heated discussion decided it would be impracticable at this late date to reassemble the Progressive national convention and fill the vacancy on the national ticket caused by Theodore Roosevelt's declination of the nomination for president. Instead the organization will put an electoral ticket in every State where there is the nucleus of an organization left, bearing the name of John M. Parker of Louisiana, nominee for vice president, in the hope of perhaps electing enough presidential electors, who might prove the balance of power in the event of a close contest between the two parties.

Among the States in which this plan would be carried out are: Louisiana, Maryland, Indiana, Missouri, Wisconsin, Michigan, Utah, North Dakota and Minnesota.

J. A. H. Hopkins of New Jersey was chosen treasurer of the rehabilitated Bull Moose party and Matthew Hale of Massachusetts vice chairman of the national committee will be in active charge of the campaign.

To Restore Party.

An executive committee of 15 members will be appointed by Vice Chairman Hale to cooperate with the 15 members to the national committee who refused to vote for the indorsement of Charles E. Hughes at Chicago June 26, in rehabilitating the party. This committee will meet after the November election to formulate plans for the perpetuation of the party. These plans may include some kind of amalgamation with the Prohibition, Socialist and Woman's parties.

Edwin M. Lee of Indiana, A. D. Norton of Missouri, Bainbridge Colby of New York, C. F. Hoffman of Michigan, Harold M. Moise of Louisiana and C. W. McClure of Georgia were named members of the executive committee.

The other members will be announced by Vice Chairman Hale in a few weeks. The following address was issued by the conference.

"To the Progressives of the Country:

"At a national conference of the party held today in the city of Indianapolis, attended by representatives of 37 States, a resolution was unanimously adopted condemning the action of the Progressive national committee on June 26, 1916, as an illegal usurpation of authority not conferred upon it by the recent convention of the party, denouncing its action as a breach of trust and repudiating the same in every respect as non-expressive of the party's thought or wishes.

Still Stand Firm.

"The conference now in session in Indianapolis is composed, without exception, of progressive men and women who are still in affiliation with the Progressive party. Our deliberations have been guided solely by a desire to preserve the party as an instrument for the expression of the halt or interrupting, the great aims which the party is dedicated.

"It is useless to deny or to deceive ourselves as to the grievous effect upon the party of the blows which it has sustained through the defection of many of its leaders, and through the betrayal by the national committee of the trust confided in it by party membership. Men whom we have delighted to honor and whom we have rejoiced to follow have not only abandoned to party's cause but have sought to sacrifice its future and to compromise the dignity of its individual membership by a collusive undertaking with the Republican presidential ticket.

"The course of the national committee has been emphatically repudiated in every State where there has been free discussion and action.

"This conference is the culminating protest of the party against the treasonable attempt to put it out of existence as a national party and to deliver its vote to the Republican party."

THE GAME OF GAMES.

Ever since nations first existed on the earth, "expansion" has been a regular part of their program. Expansion, indeed, came before national existence. The ancient shepherd tribes fell foul of each other, and the strongest took the choicest pasture land.

In the game of nations, England beat them all. She has made many mistakes. But she owns one-fifth of the habitable earth. She rules the waves. And years ago, while other nations were seeking a sort route to India, England fastened down on India itself.—Anne Sherrill Gaird, in July Southern Woman's.
